

SHINE:

Have you led investigations or operations in the police, military or security services?

Do you have expertise in tracking down wanted or missing people?

Have you got recent experience in the world of intelligence, surveillance, or criminal manhunts?

If so, Shine TV are looking for experts from all professional backgrounds to take part in Channel 4's BAFTA nominated series Hunted.

We are looking for men and women of all ages (18+) with proven investigative experience in the UK and elsewhere to play a crucial on-screen role in the Hunter team.

If you're interested you would need to be available from mid-May to mid-July 2019

To apply, please email your name, and a brief description of your relevant experience (e.g. CV), to hunters@shine.tv

Using your personal information: Shine TV complies with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation. Shine TV will only process your personal data to the extent necessary to review your suitability for the advertised role and/or to contact you in relation to the advertised role. All personal data is kept securely and your personal data will not be transferred to other third parties, other than Channel 4 and programme insurers, without your consent unless the Company is required to do so by law. For more information, please see Shine's privacy notice at: <http://www.endemolshineuk.com/contributor-talent-privacy-notice/>

How to contact us: Please contact us if you have any questions about our privacy policy or information we hold about you: dataprotection@shine.tv