

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: NARPO Discount - Website / Facebook Advertising

I am a retired police officer and NARPO member and my husband is a serving police officer, due to retire in September.

We have very recently purchased a beautiful, high quality caravan holiday home on the Haven Devon Cliffs Holiday Park, which is located on the Jurassic coast in Exmouth, Devon. We will be privately renting out our home for just 9 weeks each year, during the summer holiday period.

It would be our preference to rent out our home solely to NARPO members/Police officers and with this in mind we wish to offer NARPO members/Police Officers a 15% discount off our rental prices.

We have just advertised with national NARPO and our home force NARPO, with adverts being placed on their respective websites and in the NARPO magazine.

I now forward this email to all NARPO county branches in the hope that you would please consider communicating our holiday letting to your local members. If you were able to place advertisements on your local NARPO website, Facebook page, Twitter, NARPO Newsletter, emails etc it would be very much appreciated.

Please find below details for any advertising you are able to place for us:
